

Towards the Age-friendly City

Dr. John Beard
World Health Organization
Geneva

Demographics

Source: World Population Prospects: 2008 Revision

GOOD HEALTH ADDS LIFE TO YEARS

Helmut Wirz
Retired Pharmacist

▶ PLAY

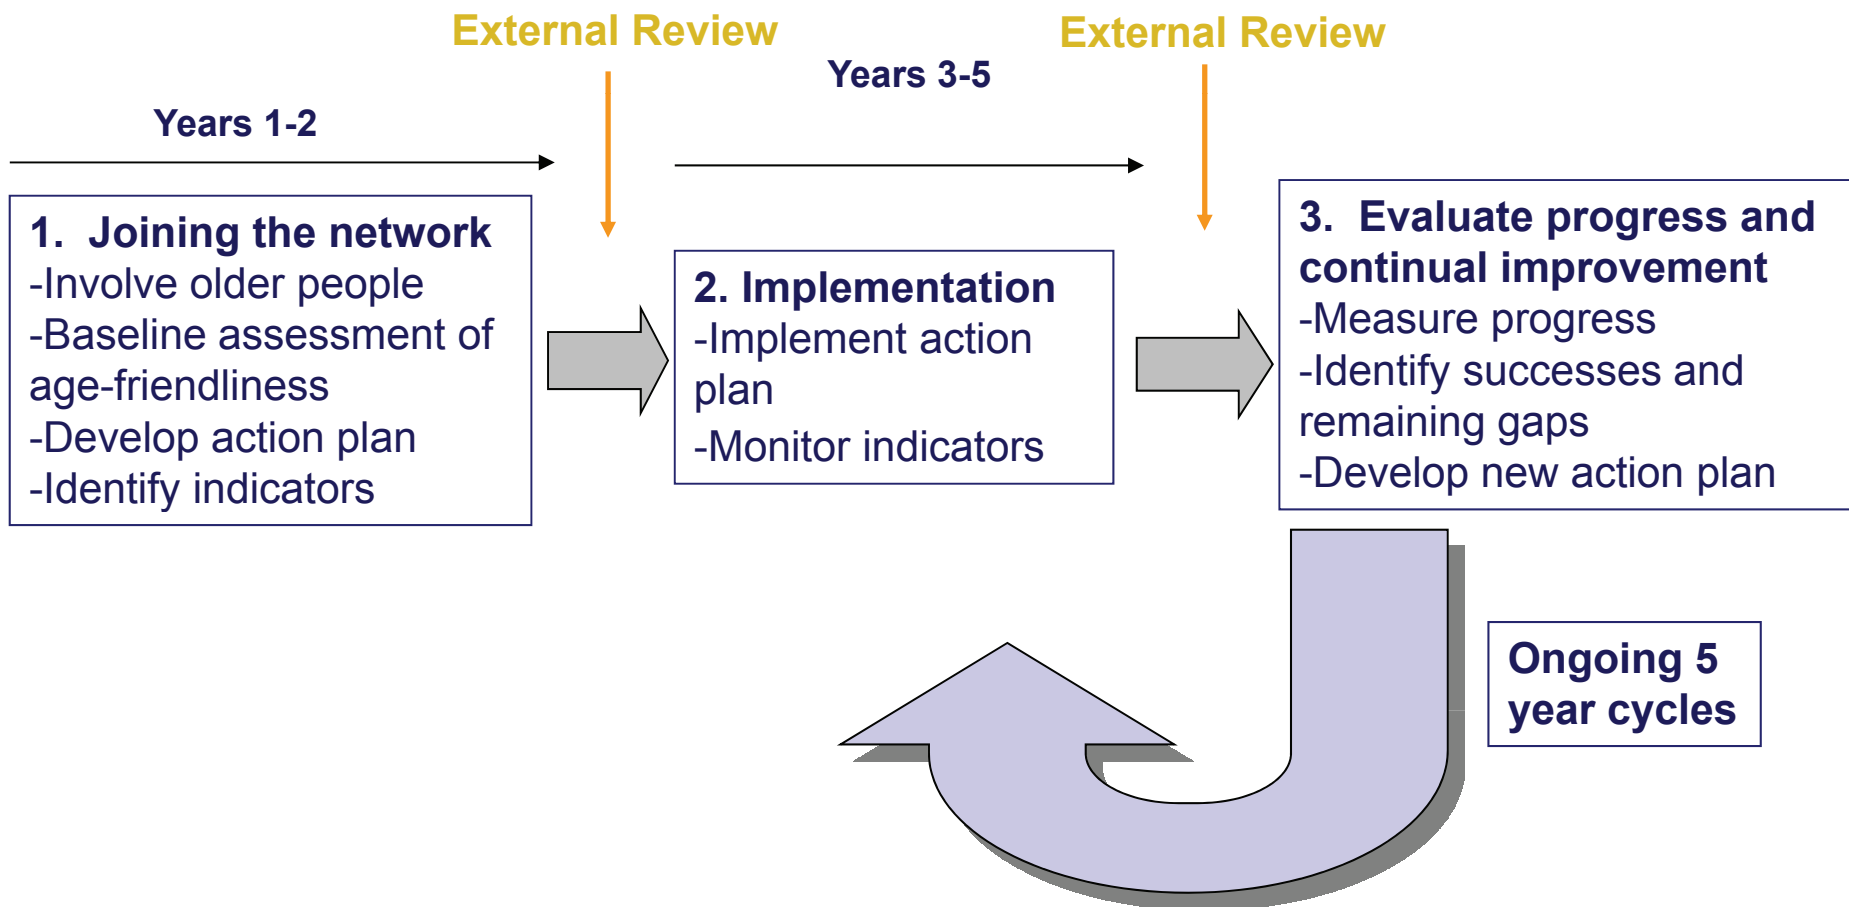

A Life Course Approach to Population Health

- Health promotion across the life course
- Primary health care (including long-term and palliative care)
- Age-friendly environments
- Rethinking ageing

WHO Global Network of Age-friendly Cities

WHO Global Network of Age-friendly Cities

- Affiliated National Programmes
 - Canada/Quebec, Ireland, Portugal, Spain, France, Slovenia, Bashkortostan
- Individual Cities
 - Include New York Philadelphia, Montreal, Manchester, Brussels, Dijon, Qiqihaer, Canberra, La Plata

New York – a City for All Ages

<http://www.agefriendlynyc.org>

